NEW MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

JOHN ETLING  CHARLES VANCE

The Judicial Council has two new members, Senator John Etling of Kinsley, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the State Senate, and Mr. Charles Vance of Liberal, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives. Respectively they succeed Senator Walter Jones and Mr. I. M. Platt. Each of the new members has had a wide legislative experience which will be of value to the Council.

Senator Etling is a native of Barton county, Kansas. He graduated from the Law School of Kansas University in 1921 and was admitted to the Bar in June of that year. He served two terms as county attorney of Edwards county, and also served as city attorney of Kinsley, Kansas, and as a member of the Board of Education. He was first elected to the State Senate in 1940 and is now serving his second term.

Mr. Vance is also a native Kansan, having been born in Labette county. He attended school and Junior College in Garden City, also at Kansas State College in Manhattan and graduated from the Law School of Washburn University in 1928 and was admitted to the Bar in January, 1929. While a student and for a short time thereafter Mr. Vance worked in the Supreme Court Reporter’s office and also assisted in the preparation of Hatcher’s Kansas Digest. Mr. Vance never was a candidate for political office until he first ran for the House of Representatives in 1940. He has been twice reëlected.
REVIEW OF STATUTES ENACTED BY THE 1945 LEGISLATURE

In its 1945 regular session, the Legislature enacted a considerable number of statutes affecting judicial procedure and other matters of interest to the bar. We are printing some of these new laws which are of particular interest, but call attention to the fact that some of them will not become effective until their publication in the statute book.

The following is a summary of the statutes enacted, following which certain of these statutes are printed in full, as indicated in the summary.

PROBATE PROCEDURE

Senate bill No. 286 (printed herein) carries into effect the amendment to the constitution which was adopted in November, 1944, and provides a complete procedure for the execution of mortgages and mineral leases upon the homestead of an insane person or a person having an insane spouse. This statute was originally drafted by Mr. Samuel E. Bartlett, and was sponsored by the Judicial Council. It was redrafted to include some proposed amendments and enacted. It has already gone into effect upon its publication in the official state paper and its provisions are self-explanatory.

House bill No. 122 (printed herein) provides for the certification from the probate court to the district court, upon request of any interested party, of controverted questions arising in the probate court. It covers many of the important issues which frequently arise in the probate court in which there is likely to be an appeal to the district court. This statute was designed to avoid duplicate trials upon matters which would eventually have to be determined in the district court on appeal. It is very desirable that members of the bar familiarize themselves with the provisions of this statute before it takes effect upon its publication in the statute book.

Senate bill No. 12 (printed herein) simplifies the procedure for the adoption of an adult. It takes effect on publication in the statute book.

Senate bill No. 84 (printed herein) amends G. S. Supp. 59-1105 with ref-ence to the duties of trustees of charitable trusts. It has taken effect on publication in the official state paper.

and 59-2271, relating to the commitment and care of insane persons. This statute took effect upon its publication in the official state paper.

REAL ESTATE TITLES

A number of statutes were enacted which affect real estate titles and will be of particular interest to title examiners.

House bill No. 172 (printed herein) provides a conclusive presumption of validity of title to real estate included in a plat of any original town or addition, after twenty-five years. This statute becomes effective after its publication in the statute book, but the presumption will not be applied in any action brought within one year thereafter.

Senate bill No. 133 (printed herein) provides that any mortgage recorded before January 1, 1914, shall be void after July 1, 1946, unless a renewal affidavit is filed before that date; excepting only railroad mortgages recorded after January 1, 1890. This statute becomes effective on July 1, 1946.

House bill No. 123 (printed herein) provides that quiet title suits may be based upon tax deeds recorded less than five years prior to the filing of suit, and repeals G. S. 60-1804. It becomes effective on publication in the statute book.

House bill No. 102 (printed herein) amends G. S. 60-3405, relating to dormant judgments, and provides for their release by the clerk. It also clarifies this section by including court costs and fees. This statute takes effect upon publication in the statute book.

House bill No. 304 amends G. S. Supp. 79-2004a and 79-2101, relating to collection of personal property taxes. It specifically provides that judgments upon personal property tax warrants shall not be liens against any homestead, and that such judgments shall become dormant the same as any other judgment in the district court. This statute should settle some controverted questions about the lien of personal tax warrants.

House bill No. 145 validates all deeds in Elk county, executed by sheriffs and fiduciaries before October 24, 1906, at which time the records of the probate and district courts were destroyed by fire. It takes effect after publication in the statute book.

House bill No. 316 relates to the duties, obligation and bond of abstracters, amending G. S. Supp. 67-802. It provides that it shall be unnecessary for abstracters to show mortgages and other encumbrances upon rights of way or easements created either by grant or condemnation.

Senate bill No. 282 (printed herein) provides for the recording of certain bankruptcy proceedings in any county where land is located which is affected by such proceedings. It will become effective after its publication in the statute book.

Senate bill No. 67 provides for the filing of a copy of judgments affecting title to real estate, in the office of the county clerk for entry upon the transfer records. It becomes effective on July 1, 1945.

House bill No. 340 relates to tax foreclosures, and amends G. S. Supp. 79-2801, 79-2802, 79-2803, 79-2804, 79-2804b, 79-2804d, 79-2804f, 79-2805 and 79-2808. This statute is not printed herein because of its length, but should be examined in connection with all tax foreclosures after April 1, 1945, when it became effective.

JUDICIAL SALARIES

The salaries of justices of the Supreme Court were increased to $7,000 per year by Senate bill No. 75, and the salaries of district court judges were increased to $5,000 per year by House bill No. 333, but these increases do not affect the salary of any judge during his present term of office.

TIME FOR DECISION—DISTRICT COURTS

Senate bill No. 195 (printed herein) provides that the judge of any district court must decide all matters submitted to him, with minor exceptions, within six months of the time of submission, or the payment of his salary will be suspended. This bill takes effect after publication in the statute book.
GARNISHMENT OF MONEYS IN CUSTODIA LEGIS

Senate bill No. 216 (printed herein) provides for the garnishment of moneys in the hands of fiduciaries or in custodia legis, including contingent and undetermined interests. This statute takes effect upon publication in the statute book.

PROCEDURE—JUSTICE COURTS

Senate bill No. 214 (printed herein) amends G. S. 61-505, relating to publication service in certain actions in justice courts. This statute took effect upon publication in the official state paper.

Senate bill No. 284 (printed herein) amends G. S. 61-1005, and provides that appeals from justice courts may be tried at any time after ten days from the filing of transcript in the district court. This statute will take effect upon publication in the statute book.

OATHS AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS IN MILITARY SERVICE

Senate bill No. 81 (printed herein) validates oaths and acknowledgments before any commissioned officer in the armed forces, repealing G. S. 1943 Supp. 67-216a and 67-216b. This act took effect upon publication in the official state paper.

SUITES AGAINST STATE

Senate bill No. 300 amends G. S. 1943 Supp. 75-417 to provide that, in a suit against the state to extinguish some interest or lien of the state, the petition shall state the nature of the lien or interest claimed by the state. This statute takes effect upon its publication in the statute book.

CITY COURTS

Senate bills Nos. 112 and 98 relate to the judges and officers of city courts in counties having over 115,000 population.

Senate bill No. 114 relates to the officers and salaries in the court of Topeka. House bill No. 176 provides for the officers and salaries in the city courts of Atchison and Leavenworth.

Each of these bills will be of local interest.

APPOINTEEES OF DISTRICT COURTS

House bill No. 185 provides that when the judges of any judicial district fail to make an appointment within ten days after a vacancy occurs, the appointment shall be made by the governor. This act took effect upon publication in the official state paper.

House bill No. 191 relates to court reporters, and amends G. S. 1943 Supp. 20-906. It provides that any judge of the district court who is unable to employ a regular court reporter may employ a court reporter residing in some other district who shall receive $10 per day and expenses while serving in addition to his regular compensation. This statute took effect upon publication in the official state paper.

Senate bill No. 110 provides for the appointment of bailiffs in counties having more than 115,000 population, and provides certain duties for the bailiff in connection with paroled prisoners. This bill took effect upon publication in the official state paper.
Among the bills presented to the Legislature, which were not enacted, are the following:

The uniform act relating to simultaneous deaths, previously recommended by the Judicial Council (July, 1942, Bulletin, page 54).

Bill providing for the termination of permanent alimony upon death or remarriage of the wife, previously recommended by the Judicial Council (April, 1943, Bulletin, page 26).

TEXT OF CERTAIN BILLS ENACTED

The following is the text of certain of the bills above referred to, and in the order above noted, which were enacted by the 1945 Legislature:

SENATE BILL No. 286

An Act providing for the execution of mortgages and oil, gas, and other mineral leases on the homestead and supplementing the probate code.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

Section 1. When a husband or wife, while occupying a homestead, is adjudged to be insane, the duly appointed guardian of the estate of the insane spouse may be authorized, by the probate court having jurisdiction, to join with the same spouse in executing a mortgage upon the homestead, renewing or refinancing an encumbrance thereon which is likely to cause loss, or in executing a lease thereon authorizing the lessee, his heirs and assigns, to explore and produce therefrom oil, gas, coal, lead, zinc, or other minerals as herein provided.

Sec. 2. For the purposes set out in section 1 of this act, the same spouse and the guardian of the estate of the insane spouse may jointly file a petition in the probate court of the county in which such homestead is situated praying for the execution of a mortgage upon the homestead or for the execution of an oil, gas or other mineral lease thereon.

Sec. 3. In the case of a proceeding hereunder for the execution of oil, gas or other mineral lease, a copy of the proposed lease shall be attached to the petition. The petition shall be heard upon notice as directed by the probate court and determined as in other cases: Provided, That such petition shall not be heard in less than ten days after a guardian ad litem shall have been appointed as in this act provided and notice of such appointment shall have been given to such guardian ad litem.

Sec. 4. In every proceeding brought under this act and immediately upon the filing of a petition as provided in section 2 of this act, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed for the insane spouse, who shall make an independent investigation of the facts and representations made in the petition, and shall, on or before the date fixed for the hearing on said petition, file in said probate court a verified report setting forth the results of his investigation, together with his recommendations respecting the relief prayed for in the petition. And the court shall consider such report together with all evidence that may be offered in support of such petition or report in determining what relief, if any, should be granted in the proceeding.
SEC. 5. In case of a proceeding to mortgage, the renewed or refinanced mortgage may include all sums of money necessary to discharge all liens on the homestead including interest, taxes, cost of all necessary proceedings, with a reasonable attorney fee, and the cost of abstract of title, or other title papers, when the necessity therefor or advantage to the owner of the homestead or to the insane spouse shall clearly appear.

SEC. 6. The proceeds from the execution of any such lease, whether denominated bonus, rental, royalty, or otherwise, shall be wholly exempt from liability for payment or satisfaction of any debts or other obligations of either spouse, except taxes, encumbrances and liens on the homestead, the necessary cost of the proceeding for the execution of such lease, and the support, maintenance and education of the ward, his spouse, and children.

SEC. 7. In its order authorizing the guardian of the insane spouse to join with the sane spouse in executing an oil, gas or other mineral lease as provided in this act, the court may, in any proper case, authorize such guardian to join the sane spouse in the execution and delivery of an assignment of the proceeds of such lease to the owner and holder of any mortgage lien upon the homestead, as additional security for the payment of such mortgage lien, and for the application of such proceeds to the payment of the mortgage debt.

SEC. 8. The probate court authorizing any such lease by order shall direct the division of the net proceeds of such lease between the sane spouse and the guardian of the insane spouse in such proportions as may be proper, equitable and just, having due regard for the time and manner of acquiring the homestead. Any unpaid or undistributed proceeds at the death of either spouse shall be considered as property of the owner of the homestead and payable to him. Within the limits above prescribed such order for payment or distribution may for good cause shown, upon due notice and hearing, be revoked or modified from time to time as justice and interest of the parties may require.

SEC. 9. The mortgage or lease executed pursuant to this section shall be received in all courts as presumptive evidence that the guardian in all respects observed the directions and complied with the requisites of law, and shall vest title to the interest granted in the party receiving the same in like manner as if the mortgage or lease was executed by the ward and the ward was of full age and sound mind.

(Effective on publication in official state paper.)

HOUSE BILL No. 122

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

SECTION 1. When a petition, except a petition for the allowance of a demand for less than five hundred dollars, or for the admission to probate of a last will and testament, or to grant or revoke letters testamentary, or of administration, or to direct and to control the official acts of executors and administrators, to settle their accounts, and to order the distribution of estates, or to determine the heirs, devisees and legatees of decedents, or to appoint and remove guardians for minors and incompetent persons, or to direct and control the official acts of such guardians, or to settle their accounts, or to hear and determine cases of habeas corpus shall be filed in the probate court, any interested party may request the transfer of such matter to the district court. When a request for such transfer is filed less than three days prior to the commencement of the hearing, the court shall assess the costs occasioned by the subpoena and attendance of witnesses against the party seeking the transfer. Such request may be included in any petition, answer, or other pleading, or may be filed as a separate petition, and shall include an allegation that a bona fide controversy exists and that the transfer is not sought for the purpose of vexation or delay. Notice of such request shall be given as ordered by the probate court.

Sec. 2. Upon the filing of such request the probate court shall deliver to the district court the file in the matter, or so much thereof as may be necessary for a determination of the issues raised. Such issues shall thereupon be heard and determined in the district court as on appeal as provided by section 59-2408 of the General Statutes Supplement of 1943 as amended. A transcript of the proceedings and judgment of the district court shall be certified to the probate court as in other appeals, and the probate court shall proceed in accordance therewith. No further appeal upon such issues shall be had in the district court.

Sec. 3. Appeal to the supreme court from judgments and orders of the district court made pursuant to this act may be taken as appeals in other cases.

The right of appeal shall not be denied nor abridged for failure of the party appealing to present his defenses in the probate court or to appear therein.

Sec. 5. Section 59-2408 of the General Statutes Supplement of 1943 is hereby amended to read as follows: Sec. 59-2408. Upon the filing of the transcript the district court, without unnecessary delay, shall proceed to hear and determine the appeal, and in doing so shall have and exercise the same general jurisdiction and power as though the controversy had been commenced by action or proceeding in such court and as though such court would have had original jurisdiction of the matter. The district court shall allow and may require pleadings to be filed or amended. The right to file new pleadings shall not be abridged or restricted by the pleadings filed, or by failure to file pleadings, in the probate court; nor shall the trial in, or the issues to be considered by, the district court be abridged or restricted by any failure to appear or by the evidence introduced, or the absence or insufficiency thereof, in the probate court. All appeals other than those from the allowance or disallowance of a demand, adjudging or refusing to adjudge a person incompetent, and committing or refusing to commit a person to a state hospital, shall be tried by the court without a jury, but the court may call a jury in an advisory capacity or in a proper case may refer the matter or part thereof to a referee.

Sec. 6. Section 59-2404 and 59-2408 of the General Statutes Supplement of 1943 are hereby repealed.

SENATE BILL No. 81

An Act relating to acknowledgments and other notarial acts before commissioned officers in the armed forces of the United States, and repealing sections 67-216a and 67-216b of the General Statutes Supplement of 1943.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

SECTION 1. In addition to the acknowledgment of instruments and the performance of other notarial acts in the manner and form and as otherwise authorized by law, instruments may be acknowledged, documents attested, oaths and affirmations administered, depositions and affidavits executed, and other notarial acts performed, before or by any commissioned officer in active service of the armed forces of the United States with the rank of second lieutenant or higher in the army or marine corps, or with the rank of ensign or higher in the navy or coast guard, or with equivalent rank in any other component part of the armed forces of the United States, by any person who either (a) is a member of the armed forces of the United States, or (b) is serving as a merchant seaman outside the limits of the United States included within the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia; or (c) is outside said limits by permission, assignment or direction of any department or official of the United States government, in connection with any activity pertaining to the prosecution of any war in which the United States is then engaged. SEC. 2. In the taking of acknowledgments and the performing of other notarial acts requiring certification, a certificate endorsed upon or attached to the instrument or documents, which shows the date of the notarial act and which states, in substance, that the person appearing before the officer acknowledged the instrument as his act or made or signed the instrument or document under oath, shall be sufficient for all intents and purposes.
