Notes on Use

K.S.A. 38-2202 defines an interested party as a grandparent, a person with whom the child has been living for a significant period of time, or any person the court designates as such, pursuant to K.S.A. 38-2241. K.S.A. 38-2241 requires a person, other than a grandparent, desiring to be an interested party to notify the court of the desire in order to be so designated; the designation is not automatic. The court can restrict or exclude any interested party as the court finds it is in the best interest of the child. The restriction or exclusion is subject to review. K.S.A 38-2241.
